Policy for appointment of Statutory Central Auditors (SCAs) :

Norms of empanelment for Statutory Central Auditors :

As on 1 January of the relative year the firm should have

Eligibility criteria :

- i. minimum 7 full time Chartered Accountants, of which at least 5 should be full time partners exclusively associated with the firm. These partners should have minimum continuous association with the firm i.e. one each should have continuous association with the firm at least for 15 years and 10 years, two with a minimum of 5 years each and one with a minimum of one year. Four of the partners should be FCAs. Also at least two of the partners should have minimum 15 and 10 years experience in practice. In case the paid Chartered Accountant available with the firm without any break was admitted as a partner of the said firm at a future date, his association with the firm as a partner will be counted from the date of his joining the firm as a paid Chartered Accountant.
- ii. The number of professional staff (excluding typists, stenographers, computer operators, secretary/ies and sub-ordinate staff etc.) consisting of audit and articled clerks with the knowledge in book-keeping and accountancy and are engaged in outdoor audit should be 18.
- iii. The standing of the firm should be of at least 15 years which would be reckoned from the date of availability of one full time FCA continuously with the firm.
- iv. The firm should have minimum statutory central audit experience of 15 years of public sector banks (before or after nationalization) and/or by way of statutory branch audit thereof or that of statutory audit experience of a private sector bank with deposits resources of not less than Rs. 500 crore. In case any of the partner of an audit firm is nominated/elected for a period of at least 3 years or more on the Board of any public sector bank then his/her such experience for a maximum period of three years will be considered as bank audit experience, provided such experience has not been earned by him/her concurrently i.e. when his/her firm was assigned statutory audit of any PSB, select all India financial Institutions or RBI.

- v. The firm should have statutory audit experience of 5 years of the public sector undertakings (either Central or State Government undertaking). While calculating such experience, more than one assignment given to a firm during a particular year or more than one year's statutory audit (audits in arrears) assigned to the firm will be reckoned, as one year experience only, for the purpose of counting such experience.
- vi. At least one partner of the firm or its paid Chartered Accountant must possess CISA/ISA or any other equivalent qualification.

General Norms applicable for SCAs :

The audit must be carried out by the firm's own staff and they should not subcontract work in any manner whatsoever. A suitable undertaking would be obtained from the firm to that effect.

A declaration would be obtained from the auditors/audit firms that

- i. none of the disqualifications under section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956 applies to them and they are qualified for appointment as statutory auditors of the bank.
- ii. There are no adverse remarks/disciplinary proceedings pending/ initiated against the firm/any of its partners/proprietor on the records of ICAI, which would make them ineligible for appointment as auditors.
- iii. in addition to the requirements of section 226(3)(d) of the Companies Act 1956, in regard to indebtedness, the spouse, dependent children and wholly or mainly dependent parents, brothers, sisters or any of them, of any of the partners/proprietors of the firm or the firm/company in which their partners/directors are not indebted to the bank.
- iv. none of the partners/proprietor of the audit firm or their spouse, dependent children and wholly or mainly dependent parents, brothers, sisters or any of them, of any of the partners/proprietors of the firm or the firm/company in which their partners/directors have been declared as willful defaulters by any bank/financial institutions.

Audit firms cannot undertake statutory audit assignment while they are associated with internal assignments in the bank during the same year. In case the firms are associated with internal assignments, they should relinquish the internal assignments before accepting the statutory audit assignment during the year.

Associate firms or sister concerns of statutory audit firm are disqualified for internal audit or for any special assignment when the main firm/partners are allotted Statutory Audit in a particular year.

The concept of one audit firm for one PSB will continue. One audit firm will take up audit assignment in one PSB only.

The above norms are in line with RBI guidelines.
